‘I don’t want to be in a battle. But waiting on the edge of one I can’t escape is even worse.’

– The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King, J. R.R. Tolkien, published in United Kingdom (1955)

‘but it’s a party... and you’re both talking to other people, and you’re laughing and shining... and you look across the room and catch each other’s eyes... but - but not because you’re possessive, or it’s precisely sexual... but because... that is your person in this life. And it’s funny and sad, but only because this life will end, and it’s this secret world that exists right there in public, unnoticed, that no one else knows about.’

– Frances Ha by Greta Gerwig and Noah Baumbach (2012)
